

PROPOSED
DISTRICT PLAN

You are invited to attend a special session of Hamilton City Council's Proposed District Plan display which opens to the public in the week beginning Monday, 11 February.

These special sessions are for professionals whose work is likely to include the Proposed Plan and are being held in the Council reception lounge, ground floor, Garden Place.

There are professional sessions available from 8.30-9.30am Tuesday to Thursday, 12 to 14 February. Each session will include an introduction from Her Worship the Mayor Julie Hardaker and an opportunity to view the displays. Staff will also be available to answer any questions.

If you can't make it to the above sessions, you can attend at any time between 10am and 7pm from Monday 11 February to Friday 15 February.

More information about the Proposed District Plan and how to make an online submission is available at www.hamilton.co.nz/districtplan
